

MODEL SCHEDULE

PH.D. IN CULTURAL HERITAGE STUDIES AND APPLIED ANTHROPOLOGY

STARTING WITH BA/BS DEGREE(60 cr)

Year 1: Autumn Semester (minimum 9cr)

- Meet with advisor to develop graduate contract
- Select additional faculty to form Ph.D. committee
- Take ANTY 500
- *Take an ANTY graduate seminar
- @Take remedial or elective classes

Year 1: Spring Semester (minimum 9cr)

- Take two ANTY Graduate seminars
- @Take remedial or elective classes

Year 2: Autumn Semester (minimum 9cr)

- Take ANTY 600
- Take two ANTY graduate seminars

Year 2: Spring Semester (minimum 9cr)

- Submit portfolio to Ph.D. committee for evaluation
- Take ANTY 601
- Take ANTY 597 (6cr)
- @Take elective classes
- $ File Application for Graduation with MA degree if desired
- Develop Dissertation Proposal

Years 3 and 4: Both Semesters (minimum 3cr per semester)

- Form dissertation committee
- @Take elective classes
- Take ANTY 597, 697, or 699 as appropriate
- Work on Dissertation

NOTES

- * A graduate seminar is any ANTH class numbered between 500 and 589, 595, or 600-694.
-  Ph.D. Committee is normally three UM anthropology faculty. Dissertation committee is five UM faculty, one of whom is from a department other than anthropology. In all cases the Chair of a Ph.D. or dissertation committee must be a UM anthropology faculty member. Give your selections to the Anthropology Administrative Assistant, who will forward them to the Grad School.
-  This procedure requires submission of a form to the Graduate School. This procedure will have a deadline each semester. Please check the current course schedule or contact the Graduate School to find out about these deadlines.
- @ Remedial classes: one class in each of the four subfields (archaeology, linguistics, physical, socio-cultural) and a class in statistics are required prior to graduation if not taken during your undergraduate career. Your advisor may assign other remedial classes if your undergraduate career did not include classes that he/she was expecting you to have taken.
- $ This form requires a fee to be paid to the Graduate School. Be sure to save your receipt.