

Montana Writing Project

Summer Literacy Institutes: Building a Writing Practice

Institutes held :

Missoula

June 15 - July 10

University of Montana

Laurel

July 6 - July 24

Laurel High School

Browning—Advanced Institute

June 22-26, August 3-7

Blackfeet Community College

“The Montana Writing Project Summer Institute has provided me with the theoretical foundation and practical knowledge to make writing an integral part of my curriculum. The opportunity to network with teachers across the state, to write and teach writing, and to connect literacy practices with inquiry and research have proven invaluable”

- Elliot Jacobs

To apply:

Complete the application found on our website (address at right)

Or contact

Heather Bruce,
Director

Montana Writing Project
Dept. of English
University of Montana
Missoula, MT 59812
(406) 243-4680

heather.bruce@
umontana.edu

Focus on Reading, Questioning, Reflecting, and Writing for Teachers Across Curriculum and Age Groups

Participants will:

- Pursue targeted interests
- Explore current and foundational research of writing as a tool for thinking and learning
- Engage in inquiry through writing and reading
- Prepare and demonstrate inservice presentations that could be shared with districts and departments
- Network and learn with other teachers from across the state
- Receive a $200 professional library
- Earn 9 graduate credits
- Receive a full tuition waiver and pay $610 in fees

Montana Writing Project is:

- Part of the National Writing Project, a professional development network, supporting teachers of writing since 1974. Go to: www.nwp.org
- A supporter of Indian Education for All and provider of IEFA trainings

For more information or to apply, go to :

www.cas.umt.edu/english/mwp/

